

Application Booklet

This Book Charity Project is Provided To You By:

Danny Pettry, LLC

http://www.DannyPettry.Com Continuing Education for Rec Therapists Danny Pettry, II, is excited to provide the opportunity for 50 teenagers to win a free self-improvement book. This Book Fund is named in honor of father, Mr. Danny Pettry, Senior, who is the longest serving elementary school principal in Beckley/ Raleigh County, West Virginia.

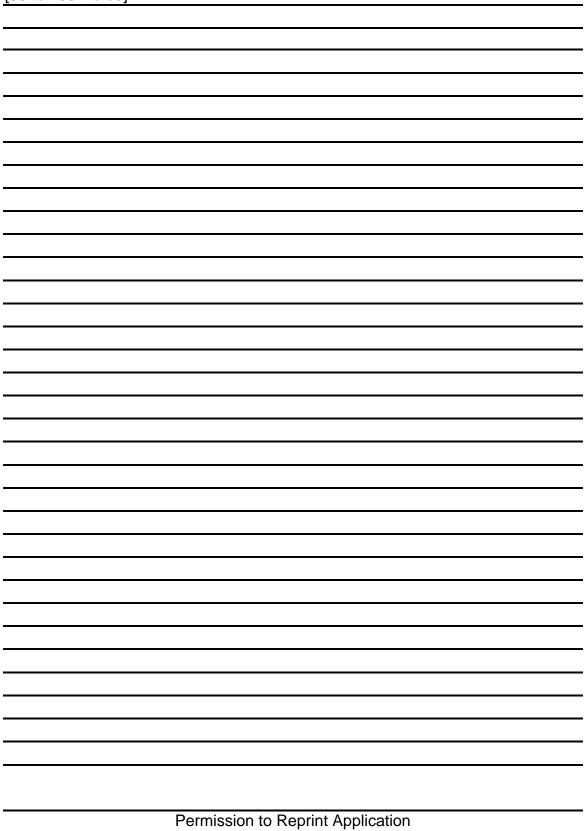

. Here are the basics for the Teen Book Fund:

- What? Fifty self-improvement books will be given away. Odds of winning a book depend on number of entries. Special consideration and preferences will be given to teenagers with special needs. Any teen should enter.
- Who? These books will be available to any teenager ages 13 to 19.
- Where? If chosen, a book will be mailed to your address as listed on the application form.
- When? Books will be sent by U.S. Mail sometime between July and Dec.
- Why? This book fund has tremendous benefits for teenagers. It allows a teenager to have some choice in what book they'll read opposed to being forced to read a book required by school Today's schools often do not provide readings on success, personal development, self-improvement, social interaction skills, and goal-planning. The future belongs to the next generation.
- How? Complete this application booklet. All entries must be received before July 1st. No purchase necessary. Danny Pettry wishes to reward teens with special considerations. All teenagers can enter. Teenager may have assistance with application. In example, an assistant can write answers for a teen with visual impairments and request audio version of book. Essays can be typed or handwritten.
